How do you make sure the hosts are enjoying the performance? My goal as a DJ is to make sure you are having a great time. Throughout the performance, I make it a mission to speak with you and make sure YOU are happy. My motto is "Tell me what you want and I will make it happen. It's your day."

What type of DJ personality do you have? I have a very outgoing personality. I like to interact with the guest, and I get everyone moving. I love music and meeting new people, so being a DJ is the perfect job for me. But I don't take my responsibilities lightly, and I pay very close attention to detail so that every client is satisfied. I want to create a memorable experience for you and your guests.

Why do you enjoy working at Complete Music? Complete Music wants us to make your day and play at the same time! That's why I love working for Complete Music. They know the importance of a wedding, anniversary etc.. Remember that for everyone to enjoy themselves we have to play! I love being able to go into a show and know that I am going to meet some new people, play some great music, do some entertaining icebreakers and see lots of smiles throughout the evening.

Why do you enjoy performing at weddings? I really like to interact with the guests, and I know that I am working with you to make your special day even more memorable. My goal is to make your wedding reception as memorable as the wedding ceremony was. I love to serve others and Make Their Day!

What are some fun facts about you? I was born in England and lived in Southern California. While in high school I was on an episode of the show "A-Team" with my high school band. I have a Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology and have been a Master Mason for 15 years.
